Maple Class performing The Goblin Next Door

Well done to Maple Class this week for putting on a fantastic performance of The Goblin Next Door. It is never easy to stand up in front of people and perform and we are very proud of everyone for learning their lines, practising their songs, and sorting out costumes.

We hope you all have a restful Easter holiday and look forward to seeing you back on Monday 17th April.

Friday 31th March 2023

This week we have been:

- We have been kept very busy practising and performing our play. The Goblin Next Door
